

5.3.2 Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities following duly established processes and norms (student council/ students representation on various bodies) established processes and norms.

At the start of the semester, the institution follows a procedure to select class representatives for every class and recommends them to the student council. The individuals from this council are assigned to various administrative organizations. The council oversees the execution of various activities on campus, which encompass curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular pursuits. The participation of all faculty members would support the council's activities. The institution's management secures the necessary funding to organize such events.

According to SPPU standards, a Student Council is formed each year and functions at Dattatray Govindrao Walse Patil Mahavidyala, Pargaon. Student Council representatives actively participate in a variety of curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities. They actively contribute to the coordination of the institution's numerous events. They come up with new themes whenever the activities begin. This makes the campus environment more vibrant, and the staff and management are eager to start new events. They participate in a variety of activities and initiatives along with their classmates. They also urge other students to participate actively in the Institute's many events on a regular basis to improve their confidence, knowledge, communication skills, team spirit, creativity, organizing, and planning abilities.

A summary of the Student Council's contributions is provided below.

- 1) Facilitating communication between students and teaching faculty.
- 2) Coordinated event planning for Bhimashankar Karandak, Cultural Events, Independence Day, Republic Day, Elocution Competition, Quiz Activities, Seminars, and Workshops.
- 3) It promotes student discipline in activities and events.
- 4) Assist educators with classroom discipline.
- 5) Students Council members serve on various committees, including anti-ragging, sexual harassment, grievance redressal, and cultural.
- 6.) Students submit feedback on academics, library services, and other campus activities.

Dattatray Govindrao Walse Patil Mahavidyala, Pargaon provides necessary support to the council members in organizing and coordinating the events. It encourages the students to develop their leadership skills, entrepreneurship skills, cross-cultural skills, team building skills, encouraging creativity and innovation, improving proficiency in ICT Digital Literacy through these activities. Student members of the Council can become real heroes and competent managers in future by learning all these skills.

Introduction to the DGWP College Students Council and its Functions

Introduction:

The student body of DGWP College is represented by the elected Students Council. The Student Council's role as a legislative body is to formulate choices and policies that benefit the student body. It will act as a conduit for the student body to express their thoughts and worries. In order to create a positive atmosphere at the institution, the Student Council will always work to identify problems pertaining to students and assist in finding solutions.

The Student Council's Function:

Consensus will be the foundation of the Student Council's operations. The Student Council encourages its members to reach decisions via consensus. All Student Council members, including faculty and students, are expected to have their opinions valued and given equal weight. If the topic being debated is controversial and an agreement cannot be reached, a simple majority vote will be used to make the decision.

- a) All matters concerning student activities at the Institute that are presented to the Student Council by its members, students, or teachers will be taken into consideration.
- b) After consulting with members, the Dean-Students may decide to alter the Student Council's structure. However, the majority of the Student Council members in attendance must support such choices.
- c) Proposals to create new student bodies within the college must be approved and ratified by the Student Council.
